

MEASLES NONCOMPLIANCE NOTICE

School districts are required to notify parents of students who are not fully immunized against measles due to any reason, that in the event of a measles outbreak, those students will be excluded from school until 21 days past the last diagnosed case of measles. School districts are not required to provide tutoring if the student is excluded due to religious exemption of measles immunization.